Roundtable discussion: Developing and Managing International Programs

2:00 PM- 3:30 PM ET

3:30 PM - 4:00 PM ET (Open Agenda/Happy Hour)

In line with the creativity theme of this year's conference, this part of the program will examine many of the puzzle pieces that go into creating and managing international programs, which, as we all know, are complex. We all deal with regulations set by our institutions, the U.S. government, as well as the governments and schools abroad where we are sending students and/or from which we are receiving students. We develop the content of programs (and often teach in them), counsel students, and handle problems that arise.

With this in mind, this program will be broken into three consecutive sessions:

- International Programs at your Institution: Staffing, University/School Resources & Support, Student Support & Counseling
- Developing Contacts and Partnerships Abroad; Sending and Bringing In Students from Abroad
- Developing, Managing, and Marketing Programs; Providing Scholarships and Financial Aid, Adapting to Change and Challenges

The goal of this program is to stimulate a lively discussion and share a broad enough variety of ideas that can be useful to international program managers at different types of law schools.
